

#KALEConference2025

Richard Daniel Curtis

Richard Daniel Curtis is one of the most well-respected experts in the social and emotional domain. His work has influenced millions, he has directly contributed to the RHE/RSHE mental health content, written 13 books, 3 social and emotional assessments and in his spare time is the father of 2 children under 10!

Workshop Description

Promoting Positive Pupil Behaviours – exploring whole school approaches

In this session, leading expert, Richard Daniel Curtis will take a psychological look at whole-school approaches to behaviour, explaining why some work and some don't (and why timing matters). He will invite leaders to rediscover the joy of promoting pupil positive behaviour which enables growth and learning.